New Spring Styles in Coats, Suits and Dresses

Our stocks are complete, and we invite you to inspect our offerings before making your purchases.

We want to impress upon your mind the fact that our garments are "Popular Priced." We only want a fair profit on our garments, and they are marked accordingly.

You can buy here with confidence early in the season, because we do not mark them sky high to commence with, with the idea of cutting prices later.

Our regular prices are sometimes less than many Half Price offers you see so often.

Ladies' Coats in all leading styles and colors priced from $12.50 to $25.00

Suits at

$14.50 to $25.00

When shopping don't forget our

Bargain Basement

We have recently added several new lines and are about to make extensive improvements in this department. When completed, we will have one of the largest and best appointed bargain basements in the State.

Keep the department in mind, and make it a point to visit this department regularly.

Judge Bruce Will Address Knights Templar.

Hon. A. Bruce, Judge of the supreme court of North Dakota, will address the members of DeMolay Commandery at the Masonic Temple at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Easter Sunday, on "The place in the world of a Knight and a gentleman." Judge Bruce is an eloquent speaker. The public generally are invited to attend these services.

Graslie Arrested on Another Charge. Peter Graslie, former manager of the Farmers Elevator of Williston, who was found not guilty in two separate trials, one charging him with forgery and another with embezzlement, was re-arrested and held in the county jail on still another action started against him for the return of certain funds which are claimed to be due the elevator company from Graslie. He has been arrested no fewer than six times in connection with this trouble and he is beginning to think he will never be free from the jinx that seems to be trailing him.

Insurance Company Soon Ready for Business.

The first annual meeting of the stockholders of the Provident Insurance Co., of Bismarck, North Dakota, was held and the company will soon be ready to do business. Among the directors is W. C. Taylor, commissioner of insurance. H. H. Steele, president of the First National Bank of Mohall, L. S. Platou, physician and mayor of Valley City and others, are among the board of fifteen directors. W. C. Taylor is president of the association.

The Jamestown postoffice and five stores were burglarized during one night and an unsuccessful attempt was made to rob another store in that ordinarily quiet, peaceful village.

The state meeting of the Knights of Pythias is being held at Valley City this week.

The Sons of Norway will give a Hard Times party at their new home Wednesday evening. Some of the members of the party will don their old duds which they wore when they first came to this country. The affair promises to be very unique and enjoyable.

A. J. DeLancey of Sanish, G. T. Wamsley and John A. Johnson of Parshall and A. D. Wells of Plaza are in the city today on their way to Stanley, the county seat of Mountrail county, with the election returns. Altho Stanley is but 32 miles distant from Sanish, the round trip by rail covers 430 miles. They had been two days and a night on the way to Minot and still had half a night's ride. Mr. DeLancey says the ice has not yet gone out of the Missouri.

Practically All Teachers Re-engaged. At a meeting of the board of education Monday evening, all of the teachers who had applied for their positions again, were re-employed. With the exception of but a few, all of the forty-odd teachers were re-engaged.

Miss Marshall, truant officer, resigned and the board decided to dispense with the services of such an officer for the remainder of the year.

The board arranged to hold the annual Easter vacation for one week, beginning next Monday.

The matter of securing a speaker for the commencement exercises was discussed. Either Justice A. A. Bruce or Tracy Bangs will be asked to come.

Shriners are Good Entertainers.

The Shriners' Ball at the Masonic Temple Friday night, was attended by 75 couples. This was the first annual ball given by the local Shriners and it was without doubt one of the most enjoyable affairs held at the Temple this season. Nearly fifty Shriners, with the bright colored fezzes, were in attendance, besides a large number of other members of the Masonic orders.

The big room was decorated in a gorgeous manner in the Shriners' colors and carnations and palms appeared in profusion.

Blue Lodge to Hold Easter Ball. Star in the West Lodge, No. 33, A. F. & A. M., are planning on holding an Easter Ball, exact date to be announced later. While the affair will occur in several weeks, the committees state that it will be of such a nature that it will require all of the time in preparation.

YOUMANS CASE TO TRIAL MONDAY

$305,000 DAMAGE CASE AGAINST
GOVERNOR HANNA AND OTHERS
WILL BE TRIED BEFORE JUDGE LEIGHTON.

The case of Grant S. Youmans, who has brought suit against Governor Hanna and a number of others for $305,000 damages, which he claims he has suffered by reason of the closing of his former Savings Deposit Bank, by the banking board of the state, will go to trial in this city before Judge Leighton, Monday, March 27.

The defendants in the action are Governor L. B. Hanna, Andy Miller, former attorney general of the state, Thomas Hall, secretary of state, all from Bismarck, and the following from this city: James Johnson, R. E. Barron, H. E. Byorum, S. J. Rasmussen, D. C. Greenleaf and Geo. A. McGee.

Atty. Manahan of St. Paul and Atty. C. B. Davis of Minot will appear for Youmans. Attorney General Henry J. Linde and his assistant, Francis J. Murphy, will appear for the banking board; Atty. Sinkler will appear for D. C. Greenleaf; John E. Greene and Palda & Aaker will appear for the remaining defendants.

Francis J. Murphy is already in the city and the defendants declare they are ready for trial. Governor Hanna and other officials will arrive in the city Monday. The case will attract wide attention because of the prominence of all concerned.

In the event that the case goes against the plaintiff, there are rumors that several damage suits will result.

LOGAN NEWS.

The Logan scribe is so busily engaged with the forthcoming home talent play which is to be produced in the new hall on Wednesday, March 28th, that his usual budget of slams is this week conspicuous by its absence. We understand that a record crowd will witness the Noble Outcast on that date.

Miss Marshall in Chicago. Miss Eleanor Marshall, who was police matron of Minot for several months, is now in Chicago attending the Chicago Training School. She is studying social service work and has already worked on two cases for the Juvenile Protective Association, whose headquarters are at Hull House. Miss Marshall, while in Minot, was also employed as truant officer for the schools.

Fined Brother for Killing Deer. Frank Curren of Sanish was arrested charged with shooting a deer Sunday. He was taken before his brother, T. C. Curren, pleaded guilty and was fined $100 with $6 costs, which he paid. The complaint was made by one O. Malley.

Young Suffragette. A 10 1-2 pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ellithorpe Tuesday morning. As the little miss appeared on election day, the proud daddy declares that she's certain to become a suffragette.
